DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of claim 44-98 in the reply filed on 2/1/05 is acknowledged.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 44-98 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-21 of U.S. Patent No. 6,854,339. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because each of the set of conflicting claims teach an ultrasonic flow detection apparatus comprising first and second transducers having a parabolic reflecting surface except the end cap is made of a material selected from the group consisting of a metal, an alloy, and a plastic. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have used the material of either material, alloy and plastic for the end cap, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use. In re Leshin, 125 USP 416. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time that the invention was made to have made the end caps of a material selected from a group consisting of a metal, an alloy, and a plastic for the purpose of providing an end cap that would be sturdy enough to protect the transducer so that there would be a low probability of erroneous measurements.
